June KPHA Show Recap

The KPHA June show was held June 7-8 in Hutchinson. We couldn't have asked for better weather at a June show. Several awards were given away at the show including gift certificates good for show fees at an upcoming KPHA show. A Youth All Breed Show was held in conjunction with this show and KPHA would like to congratulate Lizzie Jacobs! Lizzie was named the Overall youth champion during the KPHA June 7 and 8 Youth All Breed Show sponsored by the Kansas Paint Horse Association. Lizzie also was announced the Day 1 and Day 2 youth All Breed champion exhibitor and recognized as an individual class winner in numerous events.

5:52 p.m. CT, post time for the Belmont Stakes and an opportunity to watch a potential Triple Crown winner, California Chrome, end a 36 year long search for the new legend in racehorse history. KPHA members started the Belmont Stakes festivities earlier on Saturday afternoon with purple and green decorations, lemonade and cookies. Call it fate or divine planning, but the last class of the day ended just in time for exhibitors to put up their horses and make their way to the front of the arena to watch the Belmont. Approximately 50 exhibitors and families gathered around the TV with concessionaire, Lanny Lankford, to watch the race. Some wore the traditional “race day” hats while others chose to decorate a hat for the celebration. The most spontaneous hat at the event was worn by KPHA Secretary and Board member, Nancy Beneda. Nancy used assorted items found in her trailer to creatively promote a natural, yet celebratory version of the head piece. (Special recognition should be given to Celsey Beneda, designer of Nancy’s hat). Members and families then stayed to enjoy a pizza party sponsored by the KPHA Youth and Amateur Clubs. While the outcome of the race did not break the Triple Crown drought, it was memorable time for our KPHA family and friends.

Thank you to all of our volunteers! We look forward to seeing everyone again in August!
