

2015 December KPHA News

2015 KPHA Banquet Reflections:

Congratulations to all the KPHA Year End award winners, scholarship winner (Celsey Beneda) and our lifetime member recipient (Casey West). A special thank you to those who assisted in the preparation of the banquet.

Your shared thoughts during the General Membership meeting were appreciated and will be considered as the Board moves forward in 2016.

December KPHA Board of Director's Meeting: Please consider sharing your thoughts at our meeting scheduled at 5:00 p.m. on Dec. 9, 2015 at the Holiday Inn South, Salina, KS.

If you are looking for a night out in Wichita and an opportunity to enjoy great country red dirt music, consider the following:

Cody Johnson is performing at the Cotillion Ballroom, Wichita, KS on Friday, December 18, 2015. Tickets are $ 12.50 in advance and $ 15 the day of the show. Tickets are sold online at www.thecotillion.com. All seating is general admission, however, please contact Sheri Grinstead, by Dec. 11, 2015 if you plan on attending. KPHA will have a table reserved for our members. The event is open to all ages. Doors open at 7:00. The show begins at 8:00 p.m.

KPHA members are invited to attend the 23rd Lawrence Old-Fashioned Christmas Parade this Saturday. KPHA members are invited to meet at the Mana Tea Bar in Lawrence, Kansas to watch the Parade.

Regrettably, I will be unable to attend. However, if you wish to coordinate a meeting with fellow KPHA members, please let me know and I would be happy to organize such.

APHA 2017 Rule Changes (see link below). The following KPHA members serve as APHA National Directors and are available to share your comments and concerns on any noted items for discussion. Please contact: Casey West, Sheri Grinstead, and/or Sherry Wilkerson to facilitate conversation with APHA leadership on your thoughts.
