

Hot Colors Show

A big thanks to the Nebraska Paint Horse Club for hosting the “Hot Colors” joint show in Lincoln, July 18 and 19, 2015. From all reports the Nebraska membership pulled out the stops to organize and hold an event which was thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended. A special thank you to Caren Mille and Carol Lagasse for managing the show. AjPHA World Show

Jacob and Sheri Grinstead travelled to the AjPHA World Show on June 25, 2015. Bright and early Friday morning Jacob, Billy Smith, Julie Haney and Sheri Grinstead ran the hospitality cart and delivered cinnamon rolls, coffee and juice to exhibitors. Jacob handed out World Wide Paint Horse Congress flyers and spoke with trainers, parents, supporters and youth regarding the opportunities to show at Congress. During the outing, Billy gave up the steering wheel and provided instruction as Jake maneuvered the underground alleys of the Fort Worth Stock Show facility. We enjoyed Billy sharing the history of the facility and plans for the future with us.

On Saturday, Jacob assisted with the Team Tournament Competition fulfilling his leadership role as a National Director. Saturday evening Jake was elected to the AjPHA Board of Directors as the representative for Zone 3. Saturday night, AjPHA youth were chaperoned by Jerry Grinstead as they visited Billy Bob's at the Fort Worth Stockyards. Sunday Jacob assisted with the judging contest and other duties as assigned by APHA staff. Through this experience Jake has made numerous friends from across the nation and is building leadership life-skills.

Kansas State Fair

The Kansas State Fair held an equine committee meeting in early August to prepare for the event. Terry and Gay Jordan and Sheri Grinstead represented KPHA. The KPHA show is the largest equine show held during the 10 day state fair. The Kansas State Fair has commissioned a private company to assess the needs for future development on the grounds. As state funds become available, the State Fair would like to allocate resources based on the findings of this study.

Congratulations!

Congratulations to Shenan and Austin Cline (grandparents Ronnie and Diane Gage) on the birth of Dorothy Elizabeth Cline on July 9, 2015.
